LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 23:1–6

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered- it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds- it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost- it is the Lord who speaks! 'See the days are coming- it is the Lord who speaks- when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. and this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalms 22

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. R.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. R.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2:13–18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God. In his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION John 10:27

Alléluia, alléluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alléluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 6:30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO OUR PARISH

Our Plan-giving is an essential part of the parish financial needs. Talk to either Phil, Eugene or Judith Tresham to know more about it and be part of our plan-giving. You can either contribute weekly or monthly through our parish online accounts. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

Thank you!

GREEK / HEBREW WORD

“The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want;”

“LORD”: The word “LORD” , when written in all uppercase letters, is the Hebrew name יהוה, which is often transliterated as Yahweh; or as the Jews substitute “Jehovah”, as Yahweh is too sacred to pronounce. shepherd: It’s also important to note that David the writer is a shepherd and he is taking a reverse roll and considering God (Yahweh) as his shepherd. David is seeing himself as one of God’s precious sheep and his vision is beautiful, as he speaks about God’s provision and protection; and about what a blessing it is to be one of His sheep. The Hebrew word for “shepherd” is “ro’ah” (pronounced: row-eh) (רועה) meaning to "feed" and "tend the flock," which are the responsibilities of a shepherd; This word “ro-ah” (row-eh) comes from the Hebrew word “ma’rah” (pronounced: ma-ray) (מרעה) which means “pasture”. The shepherd is the one who brings his sheep to pasture. So, this term shepherd in the Hebrew has its focus on providing for the needs of the sheep. want: This Hebrew word “ekh-sar” (make a throat "hork" sound like you are going to spit for the "kh" sound) (אחסר), comes from the Hebrew word “khaw-sar” (חסר) which means “to lack”. So, this is literally I shall not be lacking. In other words, the Lord has provided everything I need for my salvation. There is no reason for me to fail.

Literal Translation: Yahweh is my shepherd and I will not be lacking in anything.

Expanded Translation: Yahweh is my guide and provider who feeds me and takes care of me and I will not be lacking in anything and I will succeed.

Summary of verse 1: Yahweh is being compared to a shepherd, the one who provides. In Ancient Israel, the shepherd would spend a great deal of his time with his flock and often times many days away from the family camp. The flock, be they sheep or goats, would be his companions and the shepherd would be their protector and provider. King David, the author of this Psalm, was in his youth a shepherd and he would be intimately familiar with this essential role of the shepherd and how precious the sheep were to their shepherd.

Children’s Liturgy Returning this week

As School holidays are over, children’s Liturgy at 9am mass will resume as usual from this week.

LITURGIA DELLA PAROLA

PRIMA LETTURA

Ger 23,1-6

Dice il Signore: «Guai ai pastori che fanno perire e disperdono il gregge del mio pascolo. Oracolo del Signore. Perciò dice il Signore, Dio d'Israele, contro i pastori che devono pascere il mio popolo: Voi avete disperso le mie pecore, le avete scacciate e non ve ne siete preoccupati; ecco io vi punirò per la malvagità delle vostre opere. Oracolo del Signore. Radunerò io stesso il resto delle mie pecore da tutte le regioni dove le ho scacciate e le farò tornare ai loro pascoli; saranno feconde e si moltiplicheranno. Costituirò sopra di esse pastori che le faranno pascolare, così che non dovranno più temere né sgomentarsi; non ne mancherà neppure una. Oracolo del Signore. Ecco, verranno giorni – oracolo del Signore – nei quali susciterò a Davide un germoglio giusto, che regnerà da vero re e sarà saggio ed eserciterà il diritto e la giustizia sulla terra. Nei suoi giorni Giuda sarà salvato e Israele vivrà tranquillo, e lo chiameranno con questo nome: Signore-nostra-justizia».

A: Rendiamo grazie a Dio

SALMO RESPONSORIALE

Sal 22

Il Signore è il mio pastore: non manco di nulla.

Il Signore è il mio pastore: non manco di nulla. Su pascoli erbosi mi fa riposare, ad acque tranquille mi conduce. Rinfranca l'anima mia. R.

Mi guida per il giusto cammino a motivo del Suo nome. Anche se vado per una valle oscura, non temo alcun male, perché Tu sei con me. Il Tuo bastone e il Tuo vincastro mi danno sicurezza. R.

Davanti a me Tu prepari una mensa sotto gli occhi dei miei nemici. Ungi di olio il mio capo; il mio calice trabocca. R.

Sì, bontà e fedeltà mi saranno compagne tutti i giorni della mia vita, abiterò ancora nella casa del Signore per lunghi giorni. R.

SECONDA LETTURA

Ef 2,13-18

Fratelli, ora, in Cristo Gesù, voi che un tempo eravate lontani, siete diventati vicini, grazie al sangue di Cristo. Egli infatti è la nostra pace, colui che di due ha fatto una cosa sola, abbattendo il muro di separazione che li divideva, cioè l'inimicizia, per mezzo della sua carne. Così egli ha abolito la Legge, fatta di prescrizioni e di decreti, per creare in se stesso, dei due, un solo uomo nuovo, facendo la pace, e per riconciliare tutti e due con Dio in un solo corpo, per mezzo della croce, eliminando in se stesso l'inimicizia. Egli è venuto ad annunciare pace a voi che eravate lontani, e pace a coloro che erano vicini. Per mezzo di Lui infatti possiamo presentarci, gli uni e gli altri, al Padre in un solo Spirito.

Parola di Dio

CANTO AL VANGELO

Alleluia, Alleluia! Le mie pecore ascoltano la mia voce, dice il Signore, e io le conosco ed esse mi seguono. Alleluia, Alleluia!

VANGELO

Mc 6,30-34

In quel tempo, gli apostoli si riunirono attorno a Gesù e gli riferirono tutto quello che avevano fatto e quello che avevano insegnato. Ed egli disse loro: «Venite in disparte, voi soli, in un luogo deserto, e riposatevi un po'». Erano infatti molti quelli che andavano e venivano e non avevano neanche il tempo di mangiare. Allora andarono con la barca verso un luogo deserto, in disparte. Molti però li videro partire e capirono, e da tutte le città accorsero là a piedi e li precedettero. Sceso dalla barca, egli vide una grande folla, ebbe compassione di loro, perché erano come pecore che non hanno pastore, e si mise a insegnare loro molte cose.

Parola del Signore

A: Lode a Te, O Cristo.
